Numb. 4223

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday April 29. to Thursday May 2. 1706.

Elvas, April 16. N. S.

A Body of the Enemy's Troops, conſiſting of 13 Terzo's of Foot, with ſome Horſe, 6 Pieces of Cannon, and two Mortars, being come out of Badajos, appeared before this Place, and began the 14th Inſtant at night to bombard us; but all the Miſchief they have done was the ruining of two Houſes, and killing three Perſons: This day, upon the Approach of ſome Troops that had been left to cover theſe Frontiers, the Enemy retired with Precipitation: However, as they were paſſing the Guadiana, our Troops came up with their Rear, and killed many of them. They have loſt in this Expedition Colonel Dom Vincente de Robles, and ſeveral other Officers.

Warſaw, April 20. The Muſcovite Forces which were in Gariſon here are marched for Brzeze, where the Czar is ſhortly expected with his Forces. Thoſe that lay at Grodno are alſo marching thither. The King of Poland is ſtill at Cracow.

Vienna, April 24. General Staremberg being appointed by the Emperor to have the chief Command of his Forces in Hungary, went from hence the 21ſt Inſtant towards Presbourg: From which Place we have an Account, That Mr. Stepney, Envoy Extraordinary from Her Majeſty of Great Brittain, and the Count de Rechteren, who has the ſame Character from the States-General, are gone forward to Tirnau, in order to carry on the Negociation for accomodating Matters between this Court and the Hungarian Malecontents. The Biſhop of Oſnabrug, who ſome time ago was nominated by the Emperor to be his Firſt Commiſſioner for that Treaty, is making Preparations for his Departure to Hungary. Colonel Nigotti has undertaken to raiſe a Regiment of Dragoons here for the Emperor's Service, which goes on with ſuch Succeſs, that he has already got the beſt part of his Complement both of Men and Horſes. Letters from Hermanſtad in Tranſilvania of the 12th Inſtant give an Account, That General Herbeville was then at Hungrad with the Imperial Forces under his Command, and had received the Supplies of Money and other Neceſſaries which were lately ſent him from hence.

Francfort, May 2. The Marſhal de Villars arrived the 26th paſt at Strasbourg; and having drawn a Body of Forces together near that Place, is ſince advanced to Herdt: The Marſhal de Marſin is marched at the ſame time, with the Enemy's Troops which lately came from the Netherlands, to Hochfeld. Prince Lewis of Baden, upon Intelligence of the Enemy's Motions, went from Raſtad the 30th paſt towards Biſchweiler, in order to put himſelf at the head of the Confederate Troops, which are got together near that Place to oppoſe the Enemy's Deſigns.

Paris, May 3. The 30th paſt a Courier arrived here from the French Army before Barcelona, with Advice, That on the 23d they attacked a ſmall Outwork at the bottom of the Hill of Monjuich; but the Gariſon making a Sally at the ſame time, and the Miquelets from the Mountains attacking our Lines, upon a Signal that was given them from the Town, the Action was very warm, and this Outwork coſt us abundance of Men. It was computed that we had already loſt between 5 and 6000 Men in that Siege. Theſe Letters add, That the Earl of Peterborow was marched from Valentia with a Body of Horſe, intending to take with him by the way the Gariſons of Tarragona and ſeveral other Places, beſides ſeveral Thouſands of the Inhabitants of the Country who have taken up Arms for his Catholick Majeſty, and either to attempt the Relief of Barcelona, or at leaſt, by his frequent Attacks, to haraſs and fatigue our Troops employed in that Siege; which News, with that of Sir John Leake's being come into the Streights, renders the Succeſs of this Enterpriſe very dubious, which is of the laſt Conſequence to our Affairs on that ſide. They write from Italy, That the Duke of Vendoſme, with the French Army under his Command, was advanced towards Salo and Gavardo; and that the Imperial Troops were marched towards Riva.

Hague, May 7. N. S. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough having given Orders for the Engliſh Troops to march towards the Maeſe, they accordingly began this morning to leave their Quarters, and are to encamp at Bilſen, between Liege and Maſtricht. Letters from Prince Eugene's Army in Italy of the 24th paſt ſay, That his Highneſs arrived there the 19th, at the end of the Action of Calcinato; and he was diſpoſing every thing after the beſt manner, for the preventing of the Enemy's farther Deſigns. The Loſs of the Imperialiſts in that Action does not prove near ſo great as it was at firſt believed ſeveral of their Men that were miſſing returning daily to their reſpective Regiments.

Falmouth, April 27. The 25th in the Evening came in here Her Majeſty's Ship the Newport from Gibraltar: In her Paſſage home ſhe met with a large French Privateer, and fought her 5 hours. At the the ſame time came in the Noſtra Senora de Monto Virginis, of Genoa, from Sevil, laden with Fruit, and bound for London. Yeſterday was ſent in here by the Great Roſe-Tree, a Dutch Caper, a Prize called the Good-Fortune, laden with Iron from Bilboa. At the ſame time came in the St. Peter of and from Dram, laden with Deals for this Place; and the Queen Packet-Boat from Lisbon.

Hull, April 27. Yeſterday arrived in the Humber two Dutch Men of War, and under their Convoy ſeveral Veſſels from Rotterdam, with whom came alſo the Rotterdam Greenland Fleet, convoyed by 4 Men of War, which paſſed by to the Northward.

St. James's, April 27. This day being appointed for the publick Audience of his Excellency Hamet Ben Hamet Cardenaſh, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the Emperor of Morocco, the Right Honourable the Earl of Weſtmorland, and Sir Charles Cottrell Maſter of the Ceremonies, with Six Gentlemen of the Privy-Chamber, conducted him from his own Houſe hither in her Majeſty's Coach, followed by a Coach of his Royal Highneſs Prince George of Denmark, and many Coaches of the Nobility with Six Horſes each. His Excellency was received at the Gate of the Palace by the Knight-Marſhal; Her Majeſty's Foot-Guards then upon Duty were drawn up in the Court, and the Officers ſaluted his Excellency with their Hats as he paſſed by. His Excellency was conducted to the Council-Chamber; and when Her Majeſty was ready, proceeded to his Audience: He was received at the Guard-Chamber Door by the Commanding Officer of the Yeoman